OUTREACH

Begin marking your calendars now for our Fall Gospel Meeting on October 5-8. This year's meeting will be focused upon reaching the youth of our community. Extensive efforts to reach young people, especially within Vilonia schools, will be planned in the coming days and weeks.

Brother Mark Spencer from Marvell, Arkansas will be doing the preaching. Brother Mark is a native of Bay, Arkansas where his father serves as an elder. He is a graduate of Freed-Hardeman University. He is an outstanding young preacher and we're thrilled that he can be with us.

If you have ideas for planning and publicizing this events, please see David Koone or Marty Knight.

AREA NEWS

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Doyle Nolen who passed away last Sunday. His funeral was Friday. Brother Nolen was a long-time member of congregations in this area and well-known for his ability to lead singing. Many from VCC knew Doyle well.

The Austin congregation invite us to their Gospel Meeting on June 29 through July 2. Ted Knight will do the preaching. The Austin church building is on Highway 367 (old Highway 67) between Cabot and Beebe. Weeknight services will begin at 7:00 p.m.

Jim and Sandra Davis of the Liberty congregation will leave for a mission effort in Craiova, Romania on July 3 and return on July 14. Two other Christian ladies will be traveling and working with them. They will conduct Bible studies, nightly services and a VBS. Pray for safe and efficient travel, good health, and success in their work.
