TODAY'S SCHEDULE OF SERVICES (REVISED)

We have revised our schedule of services for today only in order to give the congregation a chance to review the construction plans. Morning Bible class and worship will be at our regular times. A groundbreaking ceremony for the new building will take place outside following service. We will then convene for a potluck lunch.

A congregational meeting will be held to discuss the new buildings and construction after the meal and cleanup are complete. Following a brief devotional, we will dismiss for the day at 1:30. There will be no 5:00 p.m. service today.
